						E	Bloomin	g Plants
Common Name	APR	MAY	JUN	JUL	AUG	SEP	ост	Host	Associated Wildlife
Heart-leaf Alexander								Black Swallowtail	Small bees, flies, and other insects frequent the flowers for nectar.
Lewis Blue Flax
PrairieCrocus									Moths, saw flies, and miner flies feed on foliage. Bees and
Wild Columbine								Duskywing	hummingbirds visit frequently.
Golden Alexander						ļ		Black Swallowtail
Large Beardtongue Prairie Smoke
Scarlet Globemallow
Downy Paintbrush
Narrow-leaved Coneflower		1				ļ			Key nectar source for skipper butterflies
Wild Licorice Prairie Rose		-
Swamp Milkweed								Monarch
Butterfly Milkweed								Monarch
Common Milkweed
Leadplant
Scarlet Guara Blanketflower		+						-	Highly beneficial to native bees.
Showy Milkweed		1						Monarch	Highly attractive to native bees and honey bees.
Silverleaf Scurfpea									,
Purple Prairie Clover
Anise Hyssop Common Yarrow								Dainted Lady	Frequently visited by bees and butterflies.
False Sunflower								Painted Lady
Hoary Vervain									Frequently visited by butterflies.
Wild Bergamot									Attracts long-tongued bees: miner, leaf cutting, and cuckoo bees. Attracts butterflies & hummingbird moths.
Plains Coreopsis									· ·
White Prairie Clover
Black-eyed Susan								Silvery Checkerspot	Attractive to many bees and flies, as well as some butterflies and beetles.
Blue Vervain Cup Plant	1	1	-						Attracts a number of birds
Dotted Blazing Star		1							Attracts a fruitiber of birds
Grayheaded Coneflower
Ironweed
Joe Pye Weed Maximillian Sunflower							ļ
Prairie Blazing Star
Rocky Mountain Bee Plant
Missouri Goldenrod
Whorled Milkweed
Stiff Sunflower Ten Petal Blazing Star
Button Blazing Star									Attracts bees and butterflies
Meadow Blazing Star									Attracts bees and butterflies
New England Aster
Showy Goldenrod								D 10 1
Smooth Blue Aster								Pearl Crescent	Nectar and pollen attract many bees, flies, and butterflies.  The stems are perches for songbirds and the seeds are a late season bird food. Monarchs and other pollinators frequent the
Stiff Goldenrod		1		1					flowers.
White Heath Aster	 	+		1
		                                     	                                     	1				1
		•			•		Gras	sses
Indian grass									Nesting site for many birds and insects. Many grasshoppers eat the foliage. Birds eat the seeds.
									Nesting site for songbirds and insects. Mining beetles, thrips,
Little bluestem			+					Skippers (Dakota)	and leafhoppers eat the foliage. Birds eat the seeds. Leafhoppers, grasshoppers, and stinkbugs eat the foliage.
Side oats grama									Birds eat the seeds.  The caterpillars of several skippers (Dusted, Leonard's, Ottoe,
Big bluestem								Ottoe Skipper	etc.) feed on the foliage, as well as many beetles. Birds eat the seeds.
Prairie dropseed									Grasshoppers and leafhoppers eat the foliage. Birds eat the seeds.
Switchgrass
Prairie junegrass		1	1	1	1			1
Canada wild rye		+		1	                                     			1	Nesting site for many birds and insects. Many grasshoppers
Indian grass Junegrass									eat the foliage. Birds eat the seeds.
variograss	1	1	1	1	1	1	 	I	 