

Stacking Round Bales in a 3-2-1 manner creates a ledge which deer can jump onto and gain greater access to hay stacks and reduces the effectiveness of temporary plastic fences if needed.

Stacking Round Bales in a 2x2 manner reduces the amount of ledge a deer can jump onto and increases the effectiveness of temporary plastic fences if needed.

